OVERVIEW

Established in 1988, this reputable business fabricates quartz-ware products for industries such as: Semi-Conductor, Fiber Optics, Photovoltaic, Communication, Aerospace, Environmental, Medical and Research Industries. The company also offers a repair service to maintain a continued presence with customers between new product orders. Additionally, an in-house engineering department sets this company above its competition. This department provides the opportunity to replace OEM parts and provide a consignment program to its valued customers.

The business has operated out of the same location since 1996. This 18,102 square foot building is available to purchase with the business.

Business attributes include:

- Longevity with well trained staff
- Substantial barriers to entry
- Ability to work with customers on R&D
- Qualified GE quartz distributor
