OVERVIEW

This established and profitable window covering franchise could be just the right business for you to step into. It is performing well in a tough economy. Sales for the first three months of 2010 are 27% higher than in 2009. The company serves a wide and exclusive territory in Colorado Springs, Colorado, with quality products at great value to customers. The franchise ranks #1 in the industry by Entrepreneur Magazine. It is also one of the top 500 privately held companies, according to Inc. Magazine. The Franchisor offers a great deal of support to help its franchisees continue to be successful. Some of the other highlights of the company include:

- Nationally known brand name
- Low overhead with home-based office and no inventory
- Flexibility in owner's schedule
- Experienced employees in place

This business could be a good opportunity to a variety of buyers, including someone with a sales background or someone who will focus on the administration aspect of the business.
